AMcE Creative Arts is delighted to present Stasis, a group show of artists working with elements of the natural world as their muse. The paintings, mixed media, and ceramic works in Stasis offer moments of reflection akin to quieted beats between life's noisy, push-pull thrum. The works offer a resting place, reprieve, or state of equilibrium between divergent ways of being in and moving through the world.

Artists include: Richard Bruland, Casey Curran, Roni Feldman, Kendra Larson, Vander McClain, and Ryana Lawson

In the Niche Market Storefront – This Must Be the Vase, a showcase of vases from local ceramic artists with artwork by Troy Gua, selected by guest curator Jeremy Buben.

Events during Stasis include a beginner-friendly flower embroidery workshop and a Botanical Jewelry Making Workshop with Olivie May, in partnership with the wonderful Field Trip Society. For more information, please visit our News & Events page.
